Party of Ladies Ascend Crows Nest Mountain.

The Crows Nest Mountain has again been conquered, in the instance a party of ladies ascending to the summit. Friday July 26th was the day chosen and although the day was cloudy it was otherwise favorable and the party left at 4 a.m. The party consisted of Mrs. Tapson-Jones, Miss Wilson and Miss Scott, of Coleman, and Miss Dobey, of Pincher Creek. T. Blefgen accompanied the party as guide. The summit was reached at one o'clock, and while it was rather misty, at the top, the view while making the ascent was grand. Failing to discover the bottle containing the names of former adventurers, the party inscribed their names on the handle of the miner's pick and making a flag of a tea-cloth left that as a memento of their visit. The names of the party were also written on paper and buried in mound. A piece of a Union Jack found on the summit was brought back as a trophy. The descent was completed and the party were home by 6.30 in the evening, the latter part of the trip being made in the falling rain.

Vancouver Carpenters Have Quit Work

Vancouver, Aug. 1.—About 400 carpenters went on strike here today, the new wage scale asked having been refused by the contractors. They are asking $8.50 for an eight-hour day as against $5.50. The contractors offered $6.00. Painters have gone strike for $5.50 a day an increase of fifty cents for the eight hours. Some 200 mill and factory workers have gone out to enforce a demand for $5 a day. They were receiving $4.50.

OBITUARY

The death occurred on Saturday last of Harry Wheatcroft, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Wheatcroft, living about two miles west of town. The deceased was injured in a mine at Drumheller about five years ago, (having gone in to see the mine) and his lower limbs have since been paralyzed. He was in the early twenties and was well known to residents of Coleman. The funeral took place on Wednesday, Rev. H. Clay officiating. The parents have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

Labor movements from one state to another or from one point to another in a state unless authorized by state employment directors will be prohibited after August 1 when the general plan for labor recruiting becomes effective, according to regulations issued by the department of labor.

The proposal of the Rotary Club to have an "Angelus" War Bell instituted in Calgary causing every person to cease work for one minute each day and pray for the success of the Allied armies was turned down by the city council.

August Fourth will be celebrated in Great Britain, Italy, China, Japan and the Dominion of Canada as "Remembrance Day" being the anniversary of day Great Britain declared war on Germany. In London, the King and Queen and the members of parliament will participate in the morning, in a procession to St. Margaret's, Westminster, when the Archbishop of Canterbury will deliver a sermon in honor of those fallen in battle.

Pass I.O.O.F. Lodges Entertained at Fernie

The I.O.O.F. and Rebekah lodges of Bellevue, Blairmore and Coleman, were entertained by the Fernie lodges on Wednesday night, some fifty from the Pass towns taking in the trip, including five Auto loads from Coleman. After degree work by the Fernie Lodge a Roll of Honor was unveiled, containing over forty names of members of the Fernie Lodge at the front. A brother was also welcomed back, having won the D.C.M.

After the close of the meeting refreshments were served and dancing was indulged in until an early hour when the gathering broke up, all present convinced that the Fernie brethren and sisters were royal entertainers.

A feature of the evening was an address by W. J. Bartlett, of the Blairmore Enterprise, who, although he charged his presence was because he was so long he couldn't get away, made an eloquent speech, to the great appreciation of his audience.

Enemy Aliens To Be Interned or Deported

Montreal, July 30.—Captain Carter, register for enemy subjects for Montreal district, announced this morning that plans had been perfected for a round up of all citizens of enemy countries. Each, it is said, will be either interned or deported, officials having reached the conclusion that the time has arrived to put an end to any possibility of widespread enemy activities. The decision follows closely upon the suppression of a Bolshevik meeting here last week.

Postmen Returned To Work Wednesday

The strike of the postmen and letter carriers is over and the men have gone back to work, the Dominion Government having agreed to an increase of salaries and appointed a committee of investigation. The delayed mail matter will now make its appearance, and prevent any more general tie-up. Other unions were preparing to call on sympathetic strikers, so the settlement occurred in good time.

Further Restrictions In Use of Sugar

The shortage in the supply of sugar will cause still greater restrictions in use in the near future, according to a recent news dispatch.

Sugar rations in households from August 1 to January 1, will be cut in the United States to two pounds per person a month by the food administration in order to assure sufficient supply for all allied nations.

England is now on the same basis; France allows a maximum of one pound and a half, and the Italian ration has been reduced to about one pound.

The new American ration will be cut to one pound per person each month from the household schedule and people are asked to accept it voluntarily. The two pound limit will include all sugar used on table and in cooking. Orders have been issued governing public eating places and limiting the use of sugar to two pounds for every ninety meals served.

Herbert M. Asquith, former prime minister, speaking in the British house of commons made an appeal to the government in the interests of the country the empire and the entente allies to try again, even at the eleventh hour, to find a settlement of the Irish question.

Kaiser is Now in Melancholy Mood

Said to Be Very Tired Physically and Mentally

It is impossible not to be struck by the melancholy tone of emperor William's speech on the occasion of the thirtieth anniversary of his accession, in the month of 1878, on the fact that he was spending the day with the army in the enemy's land ought to have inspired the kaiser to make one of his characteristic addresses containing a mixture of boasts and threats and winding up with a furious "swearing," cables from Rene Feibelman from Amsterdam.

The kaiser is said to be aging rapidly, and to be very tired physically and mentally. His latest photographs clearly show that in looks he is twenty years older than in 1914. In spite of the fact that about victories he is greatly disappointed at the length of the war, and is said to have told his entourage a number of times that he had a sort of feeling that he would not see the end of the struggle. This and the news that the German and Austrian offensives had been gone wrong may have inspired him when answering Field Marshal Hindenburg's congratulations in that he had a sort of feeling that he would not see the end of the struggle.

It is strange for a man with such an inborn and immeasurable pride as the kaiser to openly admit on the public stage that he is tired. His work had not always been successful and that especially in matters relating to politics he had suffered many disappointments.

The climax of the speech, however, was the kaiser's frank and sad admission that England's intervention in the war had changed the whole character of the struggle, and turned it from a strategic affair into a world combat. "I knew exactly what was going to happen," he said. "You Germans did not know. Therefore I did not let myself be misled by the first wave of war enthusiasm."

Explaining the war as he understands it, the kaiser strangely enough held that it would be unwise to beat the allied forces. He only wanted to ensure the success of the German way of thinking that is "the German conception of honor, right, freedom and morality," in opposition to the allies' "worship of money alone."

"The only thing that matters," exclaimed the kaiser, "is the triumph of the German weltanschauung (world conception)."

The imperial address gave little pleasure in Germany, as its gravity and sadness were too apparent to be overlooked. It is the first time since the world-war began, that the kaiser has delivered a speech giving such an impression.

Avoid Harsh Pills!

Doctors Condemn Them

Most pills unfortunately are harsh and drastic; they cause inflammation and great discomfort. The pills of Dr. Hamilton's are mild and effective. Science has established nothing more satisfactory than the pills of Dr. Hamilton's for forty years have had a premier place in America. Dr. Hamilton's Pills are very mild and can be safely used by the aged, by children, and indeed by men and women of all ages. No stomachic or laxative medicine is more reliable. No remedy for indigestion, headache or biliousness is so effective, so mild, so certain to quickly cure as a 25c box of Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

To the Rescue of Russia

To Free Herself From the Double Incubus of German Domination and Bolshevik Misrule

If Finland expects that vassalage under the kaiser will be more endurable than vassalage under the czar, we envy her optimism. The sympathy of the liberty-loving world will go out to her in her hard plight.

What we said last week of Russia we now say of Finland: The best way for the allies to help is to free Finland from the double incubus of German domination and Bolshevik misrule, we shall aid also in the restoration of peace and the acquiring of self-government by Finland.

The crushing tragedy of Finland is one more argument for the extension by the allies, including the United States, of definite, concrete aid to Russia. Congress is now debating what can be done to accomplish this. Reports from Washington indicate that our government is more and more turning to such a solution as that advocated by many of those who know Russia best. In fact, this is an advance from the eastern coast of Siberia by a combined army in which Japan should predominate in numbers, but which would be representative of the other allied nations. Such a combined army advancing to the Trans-Baikal coast there serve as a gathering point and castle of strength for moderate Russians who desire self-government and detest German rule.

Finland serves as an example of what Russia will become if we and our allies are very much interested in her rescue from the two evils of Prussianism and Bolshevikism. What action involves in indicated to the allies is the husbandry of the farm. When war has had its way and waste, nations will turn instinctively to the soil as the source of sustenance and prosperity. The free of many furnaces will die out. Countless chimneys will cease to vomit smoke. The smokestacks of machinery and munitions of war will languish and cease to fatten. The Toledo Blade.

The Farm is Safe

The One Industry That is Always Safe to Follow

The world is in delirium. The world fever makes it so. Business is abnormal and sub-normal. Some things are at a high pitch and others at a low tide. Price levels have mounted high. Wages have climbed to dizzy heights, in shops, factories and farms. The reaction is as sure as nature's law that day follows night. After the war, what? Will the fever leave? Will the patients be excited and lean? Will city industry be hit and hurt? To a large extent—yes. The one industry that is always safe to follow is the husbandry of the farm. When war has had its way and waste, nations will turn instinctively to the soil as the source of sustenance and prosperity. The free of many furnaces will die out. ## Germany's Labor Army

German Military Authorities Lay Stress on Value of Their Prisoners

"Our growing labor army," is the description applied by the Huns to the prisoners of war. According to a communique in the latest Berlin papers, Germany and her vassals between them now had 3,575,000 prisoners. For the first time the German military authorities lay stress on the supreme value of their prisoners as man-power for industry and culture. They are so numerous, it is asserted, that they go far toward compensating Germany for the men she has had to withdraw from peaceful pursuits for active military service. The longer the war lasts, the more valuable the prisoners become to the work assigned them, and the more useful to us.

Russia has a majestic awe of big figures. Thus it is explained for their education that the "labor army" in prisoner camps is numerically greater than the whole male working-class population of Denmark, Norway, and Sweden combined. It is equivalent to one-fifth the total number of working men in Germany before the war.

YES! MAGICALLY! CORNS LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS

You say to the drug store man, "Give me a small bottle of freestone." You will cost very little but will positively remove every hard or soft corn or callus from your feet.

A few drops of this new cream corn ointment rubbed upon a tender, aching corn relieves the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all, dries up and can be lifted off with the fingers.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who is now in the army in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn or callus without irritating the surrounding skin.

Don't let either die of infection or lockjaw from whitening at his corns, but clip this out and make him try it.

If you druggist hasn't any freestone tell him to order a small bottle from his wholesale drug house for you.

Impatience

The Allies Have Got a Big Job Ahead of Them

Senator Overman said the other day:

"Don't be impatient about the slowness of the world war. The allies have got a big job ahead of them, and it will take them a long time to finish it. Impatience, then, is absurd."

"Yes, it's as absurd as the urchin who was started off for school at the age of seven, and on arriving home at the end of the first day asked a ways, very eagerly and turned to the comic page."

The urchin studied the comic page and he tossed it down and said in a disgusted voice:

"That's no good of a school!"

"Why do you say that, dear?" his mother asked.

"Here I've been going to it a whole day," he answered, "and ain't learned to read yet."

Children in Germany Starve

Germany, although attacking on the western front, is starving, says The Echo de Paris. An article appearing in the Berlin Arbeiter Zeitung relates the details of six children starving to death in an orphanage in Zeitz, Germany. The orphanage was found to have been ransacked by its starving inmates, and physicians who visited the place found several of the children sheer skeletons.

Prof. Franz E. Hein, the widely known economist, writing in the Bayerischer Zeitung, of Munich, warns the Germans that the coming weeks will be harder than any that have passed and professors to foresee a general paralysis in the supply of wheat.

The Bottom Rung of Ladder

German Brutality Beyond All Characterization

The German bombing of the British hospitals in France is an act in regard to which ordinary language fails. The sweeping of the beds of the wounded with machine gun fire, and the ruthless killing of the devoted nurses and attendants who remained at their duty, is an abomination which seems to remove the German from the pale of humanity. Amid its horrors the one redeeming feature is the heroism of the women who refused to desert their posts under a tender, aching corn relieves the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn or callus, root and all, dries up and can be lifted off with the fingers.

Enemy Promised Great Plunder

Rich Countryside Held Up as Compensation for Hardships

Plunder of Paris and loot from the rich countryside were some of the promises made by the German soldiers by the high command before the offensive of June 1918, according to an official dispatch from France.

A German deserter related how the officers during the rest, which preceded the attack painted in glowing colors the advantage of an advance in a rich country where the men could live in abundance and recompense themselves for their hardships. He said measures were taken to guarantee the disposition the plunder, but soldier were warned that there was to be no renewal among the guards of the regrettable incidents of Villers-Bretonneux, where the valiant guards of this division, breaking into the cellars, became so intoxicated that they refused to follow their officers. Before the attack the commander of the guards complained that reserve regiments went into the front line, and so would have first choice at the loot of Paris.

The Kaiser's Gratitude

The kaiser is "filled with the most profound gratitude to God's mercy." No man needs it more. It is characteristic of something much resembling mental disquietism that it is "amid my armies" that he feels this profound gratitude to God's mercy. Thank God, his armies are left so far, and his fleet is spared as long as he keeps it from coming out—New York Times.

Reach High Mark

Western Canada School Lands Sell for $7.50 an Acre

High prices continue to mark the sales of school lands that are taking place in Western Canada. At Delisle, Saskatchewan, one parcel sold for $7.50 an acre. Four other parcels out of 93 sold, brought more than $30 an acre each.

At a sale at Strassburg, Saskatchewan, 122 parcels were disposed of, 85 of them at prices ranging from $20 to $40 an acre. At Lumsden, Saskatchewan, 10 parcels were sold, at prices ranging from $20 to $40 an acre. At Lumsden, Saskatchewan, 10 parcels were sold, at prices ranging from $20 to $40 an acre.

These are high prices for raw land in Western Canada. Most of the parcels were, however, purchased by residents of the respective districts and knowing the producing power of the land; they consider they have good value. As a result of these sales, considerable uncultivated land will be prepared for next year's crop.

Regular Supply of Entertainment for Convalescent Soldiers in Canada

War emergency entertainments have been given in England for the past three and a quarter years, during which no less than 900 artists have been given at an expense of $7,000 in fees to the artists engaged. The objects for which the artists were engaged in this work were formed: to give free concerts to wounded soldiers in hospital, to provide employment for artists thrown out of employment by the war and to foster British music. Although these are proverbially over-generous in donating their services for relief entertainments, many find themselves restrained because of the war. ### THE WAR

As the big battle progresses at the front it becomes more apparent that there is little hope of changing the German defeat into a disaster by cutting off the army of the Crown Prince in the Solonsa salient. Reinforcements hurried to the threatened points have checked the allied advance sufficiently to permit of the withdrawal of the German forces, with considerable losses of men and material, it is true, but without receiving a staggering blow by the loss of a major portion of the offensive army. At the least, however, the enemy has been gloriously defeated and the increasing number of troops, constantly reaching France would seem to prohibit any further serious offensive movements by the German army on the western front.

LABOR TROUBLES ON THE INCREASE

The labour question would appear to be growing more difficult day by day. The scarcity of labor, coupled with the constantly increasing cost of living puts the situation largely in the hands of the men, the big difficulty being that every increase granted reacts at once in increased prices for necessities. One thing is certain, and that is that the most rigid economy must be practiced in every walk of life. Some system should be evolved, however to avoid strikes. The waste incurred is too extensive to be much longer tolerated.

GRAFT IN JAPAN

Here is one of the ways that graft works in Japan: If one desires a telephone in that lovely land, he must apply to have it installed from ten to fifteen years ahead of the time he will be ready to use it, so the best way to go about it is to buy the right of one already installed, which in Tokyo costs from seven to eight hundred dollars. And sometimes, if you are just an ordinary citizen, a telephone over the eighteen miles between Tokyo and Yokohama will take anywhere from six to ten hours for connection unless you are "in the know."

WHY SHIPS ARE NEEDED

Figures recently compiled show that two and one-half tons of shipping must be constantly kept in service to take each soldier to France, and keep him provided with equipment, ammunition, and supplies. Formerly, tonnage per man amounted to four and five tons, but the systematizing of work and speedier operation of ships has reduced it.

HAD NO TICKET

When the conductor came around to collect the tickets on a west bound C.N.R. train a couple of days ago a minister, who had evidently not had time to purchase a ticket, offered to pay him cash fare. This is contrary to the rules, but the conductor, after some conversation, asked the man for his registration certificate. "I did not register," said the minister. Whereupon the conductor had the train stopped and the reverend gentleman and his baggage was deposited at Carman siding, about 9 miles out of Winnipeg. The minister in question, the Rev. J. W. Churchill, of Portage La Prairie, is president of the Manitoba Methodist conference and one of the best known Methodist ministers of the province.

A plan for the utilization of western lignites that is likely to have far-reaching results has been formulated by the council for scientific and industrial research of which Dr. A. B. McCollum is administrative chairman.

THE BANK OF COMMERCE MONTHLY REVIEW

The country is now passing through a period of industrial unrest as is evidenced by the widespread demands of labour for increase in wages, involving in some cases large sums. This is a natural outgrowth of the high cost of food and clothing and of the scarcity of labour, but it is imperative at this critical time to employ our industrial resources to the greatest advantage, hence wise mediation in settling difficulties as regards prices or wages was never so imperative. The machinery of which our transportation system is an essential part, must be kept running to its full capacity. Any shortcoming in this respect would be indicative of greater concern on our part for material considerations than for our responsibility to our men in the field and to our Allies. It would, however, be a reflection upon the capacity of the leaders of labour and upon our business men and also upon their loyalty to the great cause for which we are fighting, if the production of food and munitions were seriously interrupted because of their inability to solve these problems. Questions of profit, wages and personal comfort are quite secondary to that of the defence of the country. No sacrifice in these matters made by our soldiers. Their confidence in our support should not be weakened by disputes at home as to remuneration for civilian services under conditions involving neither privation nor risk.

RE LETTERS TO PRISONERS

Private correspondence for destinations in territory occupied by the enemy—excepting enemy occupied Belgium and the enemy occupied parts of France—may now be addressed direct to the ordinary way instead of being forwarded through an authorized intermediary. Such correspondence, however, must only deal with private news and will be subject to censorship. Items which contain any information whatever in regard to military, economic or political conditions obtaining in Canada or in any allied countries or which contain undesirable information of any kind will be detained.

Business communications from Canada to destinations in territory which has been certified enemy territory under the Trading with the Enemy Proclamation require a license from the Secretary of State of Canada.

Correspondence intended for destination in enemy countries (as distinct from enemy occupied territory) or to those destinations in enemy occupied Belgium and enemy occupied France to which correspondence may be forwarded, may still be sent through the medium of Thos. Cook & Son, 530 St. Catherine St. West, Montreal. Application should be made to Thos. Cook & Son, Montreal, for information in this connection.

In order to avoid military service a young farmer residing in the neighborhood of Hanna, swallowed about a pound of soap. He is now suffering from chronic nephritis, or Bright's disease and has rendered himself an invalid for life. It is extremely improbable that he will be able to follow any manual employment as the alkali in the soap has permanently injured his kidneys.

There were only six fatal accidents in British Columbia coal mines for the first half of this year, compared with 40 in the corresponding period of last year. Metal mines showed five fatalities as against nine. In the second quarter of 1917 there were 30 fatal accidents. This year in the same period there were only four.

THE KAISER TO HIS FRIEND

The Kaiser called the devil up. On the telephone one day. The girl at the Central listened. To all they had to say. "Hello!" She heard the Kaiser say. "Is old Man Satan home? Just tell him it is Kaiser Bill.

That wants him on the 'phone. The Devil said "Hello!" to Bill. And said, "How are you?" "I'm running a Hell here on earth. Now tell me what to do." "What can I do?" the devil said. "My dear old Kaiser Bill, If there's a thing that I can do, To help you sure I will." The Kaiser said, "now listen. And I will try to tell The way that I am running On earth a modern hell. "I've saved for this for many years, and I've started out to kill, That it will be a modern job. You leave to Kaiser Bill. "My army went through Belgium, Shooting women and children down. We tore up all her country, And blowed up every town. My Zepps dropped bombs on cities. Killing both old and young. And those the Zeppelins didn't get Were taken out and hung. I started out for Paris, With the aid of poisonous gas; The Belgians, darn them, stopped us. And would not let us pass. My submarines are devils. Why you should see them fight, They go smacking through the sea And will sink a ship on sight. I was running things to suit me Till a year or so ago,

Then a man called Woodrow Wilson Wrote me to go a little slow. "He says to me, 'Dear William, We don't want to make you sore So be sure to tell your U-boats To sink our boats no more. We have told you for the last time. So dear Bill it's up to you, And if you do not stop it. You'll have to fight us to." "I did not listen to him And he's coming after me With a million Yankee soldiers From their home across the sea. Now that is why I called you, up Satan, For I want advice from you, I know that you will tell me Just what I ought to do." "My dear old Kaiser William, There's not much for me to tell, For the Yanks will make it hotter Than ever I could in hell. "I've been a mean old devil, But not half as mean as you, And the minute that you get here, I will give the job to you. I'll be ready for your coming, And I'll keep the fires all bright, And I'll make your room all ready When the Yankees start to fight, For the boys in tan will get you, I have nothing more to tell; Hang up the phone and get your hat, And meet me here in Hell."

A Message to the Young Men of Canada

Canada needs Trained Men and Women! Whatever be the task confronting the nation, in war or peace, Canada is always in peril of failure so long as the young people of the country are economically unfitted for their tasks.

Never were opportunities so great. Thousands of good-paying positions are waiting in every field of endeavor for men and women trained to fill them—in offices, stores, shops, factories, mines, railroads, on the farms—in all lines of technical, commercial, and agricultural work.

For over 26 years the International Correspondence Schools have been training Canadians. Thousands have been helped to bigger careers through the I.C.S. plan. 6500 are getting ready right now.

Many of the largest employers in the country are interested in the work of the I.C.S. in Canada, and, at their request, are being informed regularly concerning the progress of I.C.S. students among their employees.

You can win success with the aid of the I.C.S.
J. F. Parker, of Winnipeg, climbed from a $40 a month job to a $6,000 a year income as a Contractor. Wm. T. Griffiths advanced from carpenter to Superintendent of Construction for Lyall and Sons, Ottawa.

E. H. Monro, Chief Engineer of the Dominion Textile Company, Windsor, and hundreds of Canada's foremost engineers, advertising managers, draftsmen, electricians, and chemists prepared for promotion in spare time through I.C.S. courses.

The I.C.S. can help you, no matter where you live, what hours you work, or how little your schooling. Mark and mail the coupon today—it will not obligate you in the least but will give you an opportunity to show you how to prepare for a successful career.

Several weeks ago

help they would require on their farms. So far not a single application has been made.

Likely to Strike.

The demands of the building carpenters for an increase from $5.50 to $6.00 a day to take effect on August 1, has been definitely refused by the general contractors, who now offer $6 per eight hour day. If the men do not accept this it is understood the contractors will let them go on strike if they so desire. There are about 300 men engaged in construction work at the present rate of $5.50.
Ship carpenters are getting 6.60 in accordance the Robertson agreement of June 1. The construction men want the same scale.

THE REASON OF THE MAD HASTE

Just now Germany is like the small boy with the buck-saw and the cord of wood. When asked why he was laboring in such mad haste he replied that he wished to get through before his saw got dull.—Chicago News.

The Great War Veterans' Association of Calgary are considering building a four story clubhouse on land donated by the city.

Fifty thousand bottles of champagne were sent to the Poles defending Rhinus by the grateful inhabitants of that city.

That there are about 150 men a day throughout Canada who are arriving at military age is the estimate of Registrar
J. M. Carson, of Alberta.

The lengthy resolution adopted by the Ruthenian conference at Saskatoon contained repudiation of Bishop Budka, and in the constitution of the proposed new church, permitted the marriage of priests and provided for the election of bishops by general assembly of the ministers and delegates of congregations.

Judge—"And in the future see that you keep out of bad company!" Prisoner—"Thank you, your honor;
you won't see me here again!"

A modern miracle is explained by a writer in the London Opinion as nothing so very wonderful.
"Owd George's wooden leg been giving him pain lately."
"Don't you be talkin' so foolish, Wilmun."
"It's sure enough. 'Is owd woman bee a-whoppin' him wifit."

Most Heat from Fuel

One reason why the Kootenay Range gives the most use of the heat generated from the fuel, is that the grates have ample vents to make perfect combustion in the firebox, which is properly and scientifically proportioned according to the needs of the range.
